

Medieval Street Life: Norwich is a public seminar and walking tour organised in collaboration with the British Historic Towns Atlas / Historic Towns Trust and sponsored by the British Academy. We will explore the medieval streets of this city and the people who lived, worked and protested there.

There is no registration fee but please register for the seminar at www.eventbrite.com by 14th January to secure your place (and separately for the walking tour for which numbers are limited)

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/medieval-street-life-norwich-tickets-39911592648>

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/medieval-street-life-norwich-walking-tour-tickets-39911704984>

Programme

- 2.00pm Walking Tour of Norwich
 - meet Cathedral Close, Brian Ayers (UEA)
- 4.30pm Reception (wine/canapés)
 - Norwich Cathedral (Weston Room)
- 5.15pm The Historic Towns Atlas of Norwich
- 5.40pm Medieval Street Life
 - James Davis (Queen's Univ. Belfast)
- 6.30pm The Gladman Procession, 1443
 - Derek Crosby (Queen's Univ. Belfast)
- 7.20pm Finish