The Historic Streets of London is a public seminar organised in collaboration with the British Historic Towns Atlas / Historic Towns Trust and sponsored by the British Academy. We will explore the streets of this city in the medieval and early modern periods, and the people who lived and worked there.

The seminar takes place in the historic Barnard's Inn Hall, which was a high-status house in the late 14th and 15th centuries. For more details on the venue (Holborn, EC1N 2HH), see: <https://www.gresham.ac.uk/about/venues/barnards-inn-hall/>

Registration charge £5, for the seminar and reception - please register at www.eventbrite.com by 8th March to secure your place .
